SECURITY AND DUTY OF CARE DEPARTMENT

SDCD COMM: The LNA's 26th Brigade commander, Masoud Al-Dawi, was killed alongside another militiaman on the Al-Aziziya front during engagement between GNA and LNA forces on 23 May 2019. END COMM

Relevance for EUBAM operations in Tripoli & security assessment:

- The events in the previous 48 to 24h did not affect EUBAM current operations. No changes in the risk levels. The risk of criminality and armed clashes between armed groups operating in west and east of Tripoli is high, with sporadic armed confrontation incidents likely to occur in near to medium term. Although, the operational activity of terrorist groups showed a decline in recent year, the last confirmed incidents on 06 and 14/06/2021, and the VIBIED from today (22/08/2021), yet to be verified and elaborated highlight that the terrorist threat remains present and should not be discarded. Given the current context of heightened political tensions and discussions on the election roadmap, related tensions cannot be ruled out in the near to medium term.

Tunisia (EUBAM Libya - overall risk level: MEDIUM)

- NSTR

Relevance for EUBAM Libya & Assessment: no changes in the risk levels.

- Social unrest-incidents have the potential to continue due to socio-economic conditions following the pandemic impact or other reasons, as seen recently with the protest over criticism of the current Government and alleged abuse of power by the police, potentially escalating violence between protesters and security forces. No political developments with potential impact over the safety and security of EUBAM Mission Members based in Tunis and Tunisia were reported during the last 24 hours.
